

Egrets are small white herons. Snowy egrets have black legs and bright yellow feet. Unlike other members of the heron family, this egret shuffles its feet in the water when fishing. Snowys shuffle to stir up shrimp, crabs, insects, and fish.